

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Moreton Kids Festival launches 2024 tickets with new local ticketing provider - Moreton Bay Tickets.

Ten thousand tickets are now on sale to the 2024 Moreton Kids Festival, which was an event sell out this year in March 2023.

The 2024 event features a massive program boasting five huge worlds dedicated to kids. Once inside the event, all of the kids rides, entertainment and workshops are free and unlimited, providing excellent value for money for families.

Event Entry Tickets for an All-Day Pass range from $7 for children to $12 for adults, or $30 for Family Passes, plus booking fee. Half-price tickets are available now also as Afternoon Passes with entry from 12.30 pm.

The festival also launches a new ticketing partner for the region – MoretonBayTickets.com.au which is owned by the award-winning Queensland ticketing company Oztix, who celebrate 20 years as Australia’s Largest Independent Ticketing Company this month.

Oztix brand director Kristen Goldup said “Our community ticketing websites are designed to empower local events with world class ticketing that is built and delivered in-house. We are excited to help promote the Moreton Kids Festival as one of Australia’s top kids festivals to come, stay and play”.

Natassia Wheeler, CEO of Moreton Bay Region Industry & Tourism said “This is a trifecta partnership for us – a Queensland ticketing company with a Moreton Bay ticketing website that anyone can use to buy and sell event tickets, plus a portion of the booking fees come directly back to our region to help us grow our tourism and events sustainability programs”.

The Moreton Bay Tickets website is already filled with local events in the region that include the Christmas Carnival at Sandstone Point, Christmas Day and New Years Eve festivities and summer music festivals.
